

At the entrance of the main lecture hall of the Department of Chemistry and Industrial Chemistry, taken in the occasion of the small ceremony during which we announced the ACS award to colleagues and students, May 10, 2012.

The ACS plaque was placed between two posters reproducing old equipment (Instrumentation, glassware, etc.) which are preserved in the local Museum of Chemistry. See <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OzbWGP6geZA>: Video-Presentation of the Museum of Chemistry in Genova (in Italian).

From the left: Prof. Giovanni Carlo Alfonso, Dr. Giorgio Cevasco, Prof. Renata Riva, Prof. Adriana Saccone, Prof. Luca Banfi.

Dr Giorgio Cevasco (Researcher of the National Research Council of Italy)

Prof. Renata Riva (Associate Professor of Organic Chemistry)

Prof. Adriana Saccone, Present Director (Full Professor of Inorganic Chemistry)

Prof. Giovanni Carlo Alfonso, Past Director (Full Professor of Industrial Chemistry, Polymer Science and Technology). Prof. G.C. Alfonso retired on November 1st, 2013.

Prof. Luca Banfi (Full Professor of Organic Chemistry)